Á t Chambers, Robert (April 1981), (2004). Robert Chambers, a key exponent from Para, argued that the approach should be to the "Frierian theme, which poor and exploited people can and should be empowered to analyze their own reality." [5] At the beginning of Each of 1980, there was a growing dissatisfaction among developing experts with both the reductionism of the formal inquiries, and the prejudices of typical field visits.
